Headline:

Dry at first, before turning wetter over the weekend.

This Evening and Tonight:

Some evening sunshine, then staying dry overnight with variable cloud, with the odd fog patch forming under any clear skies. Turning rather cool in some rural areas.

Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Friday:

Dry with warm, sunny spells at first, perhaps lasting for much of the day. Thicker cloud arriving overnight, with some patchy rain by Saturday morning. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:

Rather cloudy with showers over the weekend, heaviest and most frequent Sunday, though the odd sunny spell is still possible. Drier, but still rather cloudy on Monday.
